RE: Mr. Adam Levine

Dear Sir or Madam:

I write this letter in regards to Mr. Adam Levine.

It has been my pleasure to have worked with Adam over the past seven years with Paramount Residential and Trans Eastern Homes.

Adam is one the most organized, dedicated people I have ever worked with. I have met with him on job sites at 4 a.m. in the morning as well as 9 p.m. in the evening. He is very loyal, both to his employer as well as the trades.

If not for the state of our economy, there is no doubt he would be still employed as one the best project managers in South Florida. I believe that whomever is lucky enough to have him on their team will benefit greatly.

Adam is selfless, always putting his work and employer above all else.

I look forward to be able to work with Adam again, hopefully, in the not too distant future.

Mr. Adam Levine is the epitome of the "TRUE TRADE PARTNER".

With Regards,

Marc Trudel
